

Deserted

Gatecreeper

Crumbling desolation
Perished nature
Watching devastation spread like fire
Pouring toxic rainfall
Floods of acid
Germinating chaos in rotten soil

Disintegration of humankind
Corroded life forms wasting away

Lost, when all has failed
We're left alone all by ourselves
Cursed to survive in obscurity
Bare and forsaken

Life has ran its course
The final human hour
Desperate survival
Swallowed by time

Disintegration of humankind
Corroded life forms wasting away

Lost, when all has failed
We're left alone all by ourselves
Cursed to survive in obscurity
