

Sweltering Madness

Gatecreeper

Brains baked
Skin smoldering
Bones turned to ashes
Human bodies crumble
Cracked and broken
Rotten, dried-up corpses
Lay in the dirt
Chained to the desert surface
Bleached by the sun

Sweltering madness

Senses ablaze
Fevered minds
Inhaling fumes from boiling flesh
Burnt shell
Of what we once were
Our souls are steamed away

Even in the darkness
There, there is no shade

Sanity in dissipating
Simmering in hellish heat
Deviant obsessions
Rambling and raving mad

Senses ablaze
Fevered minds
Inhaling fumes from boiling flesh
Burnt shell
Of what we once were
Our souls are steamed away
