

The Black Curtain

Gatecreeper

I'm cursed to wander slowly
Aimlessly suffering
Misunderstood while living, lost in death
I smell the flickering candles
I hear your voice
Your hands reach through the darkness and set me free

Undead
Unliving
Lost soul trapped in a nightmare
Peel back the black curtain, say my name
Tear through the veil

Undead
Unliving
Lost soul trapped in a nightmare
Peel back the black curtain, say my name
Tear through the veil

So give guidance... bring me home, Soothsayer
Soothsayer

Gaze into the unknown
Pry open the underworld
Your touch breaks through the boundaries of life and death

Undead
Unliving
Lost soul trapped in a nightmare
Peel back the black curtain, say my name
Tear through the veil

Undead
Unliving
Lost soul trapped in a nightmare
Peel back the black curtain, say my name
Tear through the veil

A dormant flame rekindled
An evocation breathing life into my soul
Brought back from the wasteland from the great beyond

Undead
Unliving
Lost soul trapped in a nightmare
Peel back the black curtain, say my name
Tear through the veil

Undead
Unliving
Lost soul trapped in a nightmare
Peel back the black curtain, say my name
Tear through the veil
