

Evil Spirits

Gates To Hell

A stone castle deep in the forest
Two girls hold a hostage against her will Evil spirits convincing these girls to kill
One takes a blade to her neck

The powers at hand ask me to take your life
I will obey

Evil spirits command us to take your life

Stabbing her repeatedly
The girl refuses to die
Dragging her to a field
With plans to set her afire

Dousing her in gasoline
Burning her alive
