

Possessed

Gates To Hell

I welcome the dead into my soul
I welcome the dead into my soul
I welcome the dead into my soul

Black smoke appearing before me
An evil demon looking to possess my body
Using my meat suit to walk among the mortals
Malevolence, his only desire

Breaking the seals that keep the worse evils locked up
Spirits, once damned, now, let free
Demons escaping through the gates to hell
Creating chaos amongst the world

Cities burning, families murdered
No hiding from the horrors
Give your soul to darkness
Let the evil in
