

Bound

Gateway Worship

I worship You alone in the quiet place
Where the stillness of my soul meets the brilliance of Your face
My heart is bound to You with a bond as thick as blood
I've struggled in my strength to break through sin's chains
But You did it with Your love

My heart is bound to You, deep calls unto deep
I'm staggered by Your love's sheer intensity
As its waves break over me
My heart is bound to You, deep calls unto deep
I'm circled in Your strength, caught up in Your grace
Enfolded in Your arms

My heart is bound to You, deep calls unto deep
I'm staggered by Your love's sheer intensity
As its waves break over me
My heart is bound to You, deep calls unto deep
I'm circled in Your strength, caught up in Your grace
Enfolded in Your arms
I'm circled in Your strength, caught up in Your grace
Enfolded in Your arms
