Moloken

GAUPA

There is a haze, don't let me see
How my actions are breaking thee
Love held me hostage and crippled me
Stoned my heart beyond recognition

Say does it still haunt you? (A tiny)
I guess not (Shiver to satisfy)
The pit we dug still got me (The lost)
While you forgot (Upper hand)

It grew darker and threw you away
Figured dirt is, dirt gets
Tell me how I'm supposed to breathe
When this paved pool surrounds me
The life you built could we have shared
Or is it crucial that I'm not there?

Say does it still haunt you? (A tiny)
I guess not (Shiver to satisfy)
The pit we dug still got me (The lost)
While you forgot (Upper hand)

So anxiety haunts you?
Inject sleep
Ah, this grew into something new
It might actually favor you?
