

Ain't No Cure

Gavin Adcock

You got your long tan legs on my gray leather seat
And the smile on your face makes my heart start to beat
The best damn thing this trucks ever seen
And you're the only reason it ever gets clean

Oh, my, my
Oh, my, Lord
How'd I get you in this Ford?
Crusin' down 441
I'm on fire and you're so fun
Nowhere to go, nowhere to be
You're like a love disease
Making me wish for more
But girl, I know there ain't no cure

Had a dream last night that you weren't around
And when I awoke, I was real damn down
But then you climbed up in this truck
And I can't tell where I found this luck

Oh, my, my
Oh, my, Lord
How'd I get you in this Ford?
Crusin' down 441
I'm on fire and you're so fun
Nowhere to go, nowhere to be
You're like a love disease
Making me wish for more
But girl, I know there ain't no cure

Just the other day, I went to the store
And it made my pocket pretty damn sore
This whole bids gonna chance my life
I'm on one knee, gonna make you my wife

Oh, my, my
Oh, my, Lord
How'd I get you in this Ford?
Crusin' down 441
I'm on fire and you're so fun
Nowhere to go, nowhere to be
You're like a love disease
Making me wish for more
But girl, I know there ain't no cure

Nowhere to go, nowhere to be
You're like a love disease
Making me wish for more
But girl, I know there ain't no cure
