

Almost Gone

Gavin Adcock

She said goodbye, but I ain't heard "I love you" in a minute
Her tires in the drive, but in a minute now they'll be spinning
Ain't a word we can say that'll fix this
We've already said it all
Lord knows that I'm gonna miss this
But she's already almost gone

I could chase her right now, catch her on a slowdown
She's already almost gone
So I'ma chase a high now, knock a couple drinks down
I'm already almost gone
There ain't no coming back when the lines get crossed
She's already almost gone
She's already almost gone

I been tryna find the reason that it all went south
Almost gone
So I blame it on time and the truth finding its way out
Almost gone
Tied to the tracks of a heartache train
Knew goodbye was coming, I just didn't know the day

So I could chase her right now, catch her on a slowdown
She's already almost gone
So I'ma chase a high now, knock a couple drinks down
I'm already almost gone
There ain't no coming back when the lines get crossed
She's already almost gone
She's already almost gone

She said goodbye, but I ain't heard "I love you" in a minute
Already almost gone
Her tires in the drive, but in a minute now they'll be spinning
Already almost gone
Already almost gone
Already almost gone

I could chase her right now, catch her on a slowdown
She's already almost gone
So I'ma chase a high now, knock a couple drinks down
I'm already almost gone
There ain't no coming back when the lines get crossed
She's already almost gone
Reading that neon writing on the wall
She's already almost gone
She's already almost gone
