

Georgia Sun

Gavin Adcock

Way down here in Georgia
Tell you about a love I knew
Well she felt just like the sunshine
Till it all went blue

Never got her stuck down
In this old red clay
And the pines were just a swayin
When she said goodbye that day

Well there was poison in the air
Words being thrown
Tears of the heart that could never be torn
There were feelings getting hurt
Bridges getting burned
Heart broke love
Lessons Learned

Hell to that ole highway
Yeah it tore us apart
Yeah and 20 heading west
Never felt upon my heart

You'll call me a liar
Hell you'll only tell the truth
But the peaches aren't as sweet
As they were with you

And now there's poison in the air
Words being thrown
Tears of the heart that could never be sown
There were feelings getting hurt
Bridges getting burned
Heart broke love
Lessons learned yeah

Bless you for your listens
I've been down as I could be
Well she loved me like no other
But I was too blind to see

That there was poison in the air
Words being thrown
Tears of the heart that could never be sown
Feelings getting hurt
When she loaded the gun
She ran off into that Georgia Sun