

My Dear My Darlin

Gavin Adcock

I'll sleep with a dead arm all night
Long as I get to hold you tight
Gazing in them dark brown eyes
This love of mine, I can't disguise
Lookin' now, it's all so clear

I want you to be my dear, my darling
My start to my mornings
Ever since you came around
You won't catch me being down
Even when you're feelin' insecure
I've never been so sure
Don't you even shed a tear
'Cause baby, you're my darlin', dear

I'll dress up and drink your red wine
And I know you'll be lookin' so fine
I ain't thrilled to wear a tie and suit
Rather just drink in my cowboy boots
But I'm so glad that you're right here

I want you to be my dear, my darling
My start to my mornings
Ever since you came around
You won't catch me being down
Even when you're feelin' insecure
I've never been so sure
Don't you even shed a tear
'Cause baby, you're my darlin', dear

When I wake up and see your smile
I know we'll be here for a while
Ain't no use in makin' the bed
'Cause we'll be right back in again
Girl, it's never been so clear

I want you to be my dear, my darling
My start to my mornings
Ever since you came around
You won't catch me being down
Even when you're feelin' insecure
I've never been so sure
Don't you even shed a tear
'Cause baby, you're my darlin', dear
