

Next To Nothin

Gavin Adcock

Used to wake up in peace, now I wake up in pieces
Used to love you the most, now I love nothing at all
Used to call you my angel, but I'm fighting demons
You still stare at me down through every frame on the wall

And I know that calling this late ain't the right move
And I know I'm lying through my teeth when I tell you

Last time don't have to be the last time
I think maybe we can work this out
Now some better than crackin' cheer wine
I stay on my side of the couch and the only line
You know I won't be bluffing
'Cause without you I'm next to nothin'
Next to nothin'

I ain't touched a pill since the day you left
The powder on the counter is a friend of a friend's
If you smell the skunk the bankers want in the yard
I ain't took this piss in you too long

And I know that calling this late ain't the right move

Last time don't have to be the last time
I think maybe we can work this out
Now some better than crackin' cheer wine
I stay on my side of the couch and the only line
You know I won't be bluffing
'Cause without you I'm next to nothin'

Last time don't have to be the last time
I think maybe we can work this out
Now some better than crackin' cheer wine
I stay on my side of the couch and the only line
You know I won't be bluffing
'Cause without you I'm next to nothin'
Next to nothin'
