

Thrivin Here

Gavin Adcock

I held you just the night before
And by today, never more
By the faith in the doubt that we work things out
You'll never really be what you say you're about

I'm all alone crying here
Been boozed out with no damn fear
Of being alone, stayin' damn stoned
I'm glad your bitch ass didn't come home
I'm all alone crying here

I killed a fifth of Jack today
To get the nerve to finally say
You ain't worth a damn, I gave you my hand
Then you ran off with another man

I'm all alone crying here
Been boozed out with no damn fear
Of being alone, stayin' damn stoned
I'm glad your bitch ass didn't come home
I'm all alone crying here

I made some cash this past damn year
Got a handful of friends, we party we sin
I ain't never gotta see your face again
I'm not alone, I'm thriving here
I'm not alone, I'm thriving here
