I just won the lottery
Findin' you company
No champagne, no limousine
Still can't afford the rent
It don't make no difference
Now my chest is full of strength

When ever you hold me, when ever you hold me
I never wanna let go, let go
You're the only one I follow, follow
We never have to pretend, pretend
I think you're my best friend, best friend
Baby it's mad world, mad world
And every bodies out to get you, get you
We don't have to pay attention attention
I can handle all the pressure, pressure
You said it wasn't easy, you make everything easy

It feels like I sobered up
You filled up my coffee cup
When you came and woke me up
Before I was half empty
Just livin'
'Til you [?] me in

When ever you hold me, when ever you hold me
I never wanna let go, let go
You're the only one I follow, follow
We never have to pretend, pretend
I think you're my best friend, best friend
Baby it's mad world, mad world
And every bodies out to get you, get you
We don't have to pay attention attention
I can handle all the pressure, pressure
You said it wasn't easy, you make everything easy
You said it wasn't easy, you make everything easy

La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la

Baby it's mad world, mad world
And every bodies out to get you, get you
We don't have to pay attention attention
I can handle all the pressure, pressure
You said it wasn't easy, you make everything easy
You said it wasn't easy, you make everything so easy
