

When did the world break?
When did the earth quake?
Why would you fly away?
Are you so heartless?
You found the trouble
Beneath our high hopes
Where did you your heart go?
If there's any left?

Don't say your sorry now
Cause the words won't matter
When you're not around
I don't have to play the fool for you
So tell me where are you gonna go?
Now you lost your halo
Now you lost your halo

Now I walk in straight lines
Think of you sometimes
With all your pretty lies
I don't believe now
You've lost your halo
How could you be so cold?
I'm fixing all your broke
Cause I know to drown you out

So don't say your sorry now
Cause the words won't matter
When you're not around
I don't have to play the fool for you
So tell me where are you gonna go?
Now you lost your halo
Now you lost your halo
Now you lost your halo

So don't say your sorry now
Cause the words won't matter
When you're not around
I don't have to play the fool for you
So tell me where are you gonna go?
Now you lost your halo
