Jealous

Gavin James

Tell me was I somebody special?
Or someone to talk to?
I thought I knew you
Tell me how you, you could be so cold
And make it look easy?
But what do I know?

'Cause the more I bend, the more I break
The less I try, the more I think about you
About you

Could you show me how it feels to let me go?
'Cause it doesn't seem to wear you down at all
Oh, and I'm jealous, I'm jealous
Oh, I'm jealous, I'm jealous

And I need to know

Thought I'd tell you that living without you
Feels like running on empty
Gonna crash soon
Guess I'm jealous of how you look happy
Well, my heart is heavy
Lost in the memories

'Cause the more I give, the less I take
How could you give the world away? So reckless
I hate this

Could you show me how it feels to let me go?
'Cause it doesn't seem to wear you down at all
Oh, and I'm jealous, I'm jealous
Oh, I'm jealous, I'm jealous

And I need to know
I need to know
Ooh

It feels like and it feels like
All the walls are caving in
Yeah, you're alright
Oh, you're alright
Is it even sinking in?
Yeah, I'm jealous, so jealous
Are you even listening?

Could you show me how it feels to let me go?
'Cause it doesn't seem to wear you down at all
Oh, and I'm jealous, I'm jealous
Oh, I'm jealous, I'm jealous

And I need to know
