

Kingdom

Gavin James

Is this how it's meant to be?
'Cause I'm feeling so lost in between Guess we couldn't get the words right
Never thought it hurt like this
Don't blame it on me
I'll always hold the memories on me
But I know everywhere I go
Nowhere feels like home, and it's

So cold
Couldn't look in your eyes as the walls came tumbling down
My love
Now we watch our kingdom fall like we're nothing at all
So close
Heard the angels cry though we tried but we couldn't hold on
My love
Now we watch our kingdom fall like we're nothing at all
Like we're nothing at all
Like we're nothing at all

Tell me who's gonna be your kingdom now?
Is this how it's meant to feel?
At night dreaming you're here every time
But it's only when my eyes are closed
That you come home, and that's what kills me
'Cause all I have is memories haunting me right now
It feels

So cold
Couldn't look in your eyes as the walls came tumbling down
My love
Now we watch our kingdom fall like we're nothing at all
So close
Heard the angels cry though we tried but we couldn't hold on
My love
Now we watch our kingdom fall like we're nothing at all
Like we're nothing at all
Like we're nothing at all

Tell me who's gonna be your kingdom now?
'Cause I don't know how I should let you go
Nobody ever told me how
And no one knows
How I just feel it all
It's you I miss the most Everywhere I go, it feels

So cold
Couldn't look in your eyes as the walls came tumbling down
My love
Now we watch our kingdom fall like we're nothing at all
So close
Heard the angels cry though we tried but we couldn't hold on
My love
Now we watch our kingdom fall like we're nothing at all
Like we're nothing at all
Like we're nothing at all

Tell me who's gonna be your kingdom now?
Tell me who's gonna be your kingdom now?
