

GOAT

GAWNE

Pendo! I see you, GAWNE

I think it's time we bring back some competitive edge to this shit

Welcome everybody to the apocalypse

Go and cover your face with an Oculus

Finna drop bombs that'll cover the continent, said they want smoke but they running for oxygen

I ain't ever been impressed with you lames (Nah)

Everything but that's destined to change

Best in my lane, got 'em all depressed, what a shame

Who's next if I got blood left in my veins?

Never gonna bow down to nobody, I'm in for the bread, you ain't keeping the dough from me

Don't gotta blow money, I'ma cop investments

Won't drop one dime on a diamond necklace, I

N-n-n-need a return, get a 50k tax bill legally burned

I keep my feet to the furnace and put the beat in a urn

I get a motherfucker hooked when I'm leaking a verse, come on bitch

All my metaphors hit like edibles, moved down south and I popped like Jelly Roll

100k payday, made like ten of those

Money ain't a joke, you hoes hysterical

Back with a better flow, rapping December cold

Got a few racks in the envelope, salute the general

Bank been straight, shit's hetero

Get the fuck off my genitals, bitch

Marked a misfit

'Til I heard rap, had a spark of interest

And I lit 'em all up on my arsonist shit

I'm a missile with the flows and the bars ballistic

Narcissistic and the bars elite, keep 'em tighter than a bride to be

Price increasing like twice a week, but never been a vulture, I'm a dying breed

You know it's time to feast

With a fire inside my soul, I keep on traveling down this road

Ain't no telling how far I'll go

Tell 'em all that I'm the motherfuckin' goat

GOAT, GOAT, GOAT, GOAT, GOAT

Tell 'em all that I'm the motherfuckin' goat

GOAT, GOAT, GOAT, GOAT, GOAT

Tell 'em all that I'm the motherfuckin' goat

Some days I get fed up with anger, there's too many wack ass rappers

Y'all ain't even half my level of danger, the Lone Ranger

We are not the same so disclaimer

A lot of you new school dudes that I came up with suck dick if I was ever to wager

I swear to God I'll never let 'em be greater

Nah, it's not in my competitive nature

The word GOAT's getting thrown around

And everybody wanna claim that they hold the crown now

But only I am walking on holy ground, it's lonely how I really been an only child

No, none of y'all fucking with the level that I go

So anybody thinkin' that I wasn't the guy, yo

You're in denial, better shut up your piehole
Like Brady with the pigskin throwing a spiral
First I get pissed off, then I'ma unload
The drum goes bang when I fill 'em with gun smoke
The young goat is gung ho, never was hunble
A competitor, the predator has entered the jungle
I ain't fuckin' with no disrespect, and if you wanna talk shit you better hit the deck
'Cause y'all ain't nothing but a pest that I disinfect
Like crystal meth, I hit 'em with the kiss of death, mwah
Did I not tend to slay each verse, kill it first, then I send it away
In a hearse from the pen to the page to an empty grave
Not a game when you mention my name, in the end they'll say I was the dark horse
Like Senzu's Art of War
I never miss, one shot one kill, I'm too hardcore
I put a hole in one, no par 4
Numero uno, but I'm not the one to be playing with Y'all better draw four
You getting jumped, parkour
You getting slammed like a car door
'Cause you fucking with a veteran, can bet I got pedigree
Tell the enemy they're never gonna get up ahead of me
So you better be ready for me to enter with a head of steam
I'm fed up being doubted, been the GOAT and I'ma let 'em see
Now fucking with the greatest, the lord of flows
I been a G.O.D MC, the oracle
No one can keep up when I get to recording those
It's a memorial for your favorite editorial rappers
And fuck a cemetary, I'ma send 'em to the crematory yo
Don't gotta answer who's the one, they swore the GOAT
It was rhetorical just as the chorus goes

Tell 'em all that I'm the motherfuckin' goat
GOAT, GOAT, GOAT, GOAT, GOAT
Tell 'em all that I'm the motherfuckin' goat
GOAT, GOAT, GOAT, GOAT, GOAT
Tell 'em all that I'm the motherfuckin' goat
