

Iron

GAWNE

I smell the smoke in the air
I feel the wind as it howls
I hear the rain and the thunder
A storm is now coming
There's lightning that's up in the clouds
Thousands of people around
Look at the crowd
But who's going to pray for me now?
I spent my life in this cage
On the biggest of stages
And these are the champion rounds
Ooh! Ooh!

What you know about the thrill to fight?
Got me on my heels tonight and I feel the hype
So as I
Hit foes in the liver, precise
Deliver the strike
And fill 'em with a venomous bite
It kind of feels like I should give 'em some ice
The way I
Pick 'em apart I got the wickedest right hand
You probably ever seen in your life man
I might slam you to the white canvas
I can
Shut off your lights!
And my reign has been constant
It's what you wanted, right?
You can be honest
All of my life was spent dreaming about it
But now that I got it created a monster you don't understand
I am a man made of iron was forged in the fire and formed
Heart of a lion I roar
I'm running towards the eye of the storm
Bout ready for war!

I'll see you at the top
I rise
Been through a lot
And whether or not I climb
No one can stop my grind
Cause I'm going out my mind
I lay it all on the line when I brawl so I guess
It's about that time
I'll see you at the top
I'll see you at the-
War is coming
Are you ready for more?
Enemy hordes been summoned
From the fire was formed
I was then born
Iron they forged me from it
I gave my life to this game as I fight everyday
I've created a monster!
I'm here to conquer!
I'll see you at the top!

Yeah
It's been a long time coming...
I can feel the butterflies in my stomach
But I fear no man
I don't fear nobody
If they bleed like me
Then I'ma leave them bloody
All my life I've done it
All my life had to fight on this flight to the summit
No, I won't plummet
When the lights go on and the cameras running
Let's run it!
And I'm thinkin' about the quickest way
To be givin' out a beatin'
When I get kickin' 'em like some sneakers
My enemies I defeat 'em
No I'm never givin' 'em clemency
When they enter in my guillotine
Y'all better go get to sleepin'
Like on a bed, a Tempur-Pedic...
It's about time I devised a plot
To rise a lot
I grind like I'm behind the clock
All of my life I was denied shot
But I defied the odds as I climbed and arrived on top!
It wasn't always this way though
No, I had to grind
How many years spent waiting in line?
I laid it all on the line
Promised the world
I would defy the odds
No nothings impossible
Overcome obstacles I
Reach for the sky
I swore I'd see you at the top
No we have arrived!

I'll see you at the top
I rise
Been through a lot
And whether or not I climb
No one can stop my grind
Cause I'm going out my mind
I lay it all on the line when I brawl so I guess
It's about that time
I'll see you at the top
I'll see you at the-
War is coming
Are you ready for more?
Enemy hordes been summoned
From the fire was formed
I was then born
Iron they forged me from it
I gave my life to this game as I fight everyday
I've created a monster!
I'm here to conquer!
I'll see you at the top!
