

Leaving

GAWNE

I'm leaving without you
Can't do this anymore so goodbye
Goodbye to us
Because I'm leaving

You believe me now?
When I said I won't be around
And I'm so sorry to everybody but I'm leaving town
Too far away to reach me now
Disappear down beneath these clouds
Don't shed a tear for me please be proud
All I wanted was the peace I found
I been strong for so fucking long
And I hate it how
On the outside I can fake a smile
While inside I been crying out
But don't make a sound
Now breaking down
Nobody noticed my pain around
I'm not coming home tonight
Dinners cold
Time to end the show as I take a bow
Growing old and getting colder
Where you finna go when the show is over?
Goal to go I'm never gonna hold a boulder
Shoulders foldin' when I'm on the open road
And not close to home
I'm going coast to coast
Up in this locomotive
Ain't no hope to slow because his soul is broken
Man he's comatose from all the overdosing
Feel the sting of a switchblade
That's right in my rib cage
It's leaving a scar now
The people that wish pain
They want me to fall down
Been pulling me this way
Then pulling me that way
You're ripping my heart out
Alone in my car how
I needed you that day
I'll never come back babe
I think I'm too far out
I live in the fast lane
It's like I'm outta energy
I do not have enough in the gas tank

I'm leaving without you
Can't do this anymore so goodbye
Goodbye to us
Because I'm leaving

I'm leaving without you
Can't do this anymore so goodbye
Goodbye to us
Because I'm leaving

You kick me to the curb
And treat me like a dog
Hate me while I'm here so I disappear
Now don't you dare
Miss me when I'm gone
In the end it was indefensible
You wished the best of both worlds
Wanted me to remain dependable
But where were you
When I was pinned against the ropes
And I ain't really wanna stoop so low
Fuses blow
Then I went and blew that smoke
In the face of these putrid rude assholes
You should know
My life is the Truman show
Going way to fast
Two lane road
One way ticket
No way home
Oh painful can't wait to crash
Step on the gas and I lose control
I look at the sky
Wondering why
Every day people will die
Humans are funny we cheat and we lie
Fight over money that piece of the pie
Lot of us love
More of us hate
Devils at work no one's born a saint
We go to church
For an escape
But there's nowhere to run not immortal to fate
Life is a story of pain
Life is a story of shame
But life is a glorious thing
Look at the world
Look at the horrible things
Now look at the joy it can bring
I take the good with the bad
No matter the sun or the rain cause
Even on darkest of nights
There'll be light in the morning again

I'm leaving without you
Can't do this anymore so goodbye
Goodbye to us
Because I'm leaving

I'm leaving without you
Can't do this anymore so goodbye
Goodbye to us
Because I'm leaving
