

Lies

GAWNE

Whole life living a lie
I don't believe in no reasons why
Life is worth my time
Even young people can still die
So we're going to get high
They say they have faith
When you mentally break
Been going out my mind
I don't look to the sky

Whole life living a lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie
Lie, lie, lie, lie
Why don't you love me
You only hate me
I put this gun to my temple
I'm crazy

So ill and flow killer like for real
I get the show filled up enter the venue
And turn the whole building
Into King Kong vs Godzilla we 'bout to break shit
No ceilings go ape shit like gorillas
Everybody wanna say what I know
I been working everyday feel like I'm breaking the mold
There ain't nothing else to play
Except my ace in the hole
I never miss because I'm heaven sent
Pray for my soul
Ya ya cocky I know like Rocky Balboa
It makes for watching the show
No stopping it for
Anybody other than my fucking mother and yo
They try coming for my throne you getting punched in the nose
Try to run up in my door you get a gun to your skull
Cause I don't love no other hoe
Only time you touch my bread is when you butter my toast bitch
Enough of the bullshit
You really want the smoke till I put the hole in my notice

Whole life living a lie
I don't believe in no reasons why
Life is worth my time
Even young people can still die
So we're going to get high
They say they have faith
When you mentally break
Been going out my mind
I don't look to the sky

Whole life living a lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie
Lie, lie, lie, lie
Why don't you love me
You only hate me
I put this gun to my temple
I'm crazy

Yeah yeah battle through the elements

Even in the wind and rain plain as day as maleficent
The evil's in my brain go insane
So heinous and petulant how many lies told to my closet
It is full of skeletons oh yo hello
I'm developing a relevant slow method to show
Why the heck I've been protecting my soul
Because the devil never left me alone
So why would I try not to tell a lie
Yeah who's gonna' know
So please do not try to teach me to stop
Cuz' I don't ever listen
Reminiscent of evil I'm hot
Me and the devil go together like some peas in a pod
But I do so many bad things
Seven deadly sins
Jesus and god
So who am I, I do not know
Because I lost my mind and I crossed my soul
They used to call me Luke Gawne
But a man has moved on
I went from "Flibbidy Hibbity"
To singing these new songs

You want it all on a silver platter
Your mommy and your daddy couldn't make this better
You can even pave your way out of all this pressure
You want it all on a silver platter
