GAWNE

Hate me while I'm here
But you miss me when I'm gone
Sometimes it just feels like we won't ever get along
How can this be real if it doesn't leave a scar?
Yeah you left me in the dark
I can't love you from afar!

Today I woke up and ain't feel so hot
So my doctor said I need pills to pop
Anxiety is something that I deal with a lot
Yeah but I don't even know if it's real or not
I guess I'm just a little bit unstable right?
In my mind
Cause I kinda like the crazy type
But I'd be lying if I said I don't pay the price though
These psycho bitches ain't lady like
WHAT WOAHH
She rips off my clothing
Ain't nobody hotter
God I'm exploding
Suckin' she blows me
Fuck it I'm lonely
But gotta get home
Before your boyfriend notices me
I'm not supposed to get close with these hoes
They're no good for me no
But I'm not good on my own
And I hate being alone
So I'm bringing one home with me
Go to sleep
Wake up
To find that she stole from me!

Hate me while I'm here
But you miss me when I'm gone
Sometimes it just feels like we won't ever get along
How can this be real if it doesn't leave a scar?
Yeah you left me in the dark
I can't love you from afar!
I can't love you from afar
So I cry out in the dark
So I cry out in the dark
How can this be real if it doesn't leave a scar?
If it doesn't leave a scar
I can't love you from afar
No I can't love you from afar

Tough titty girl
Yup tough sledding
I don't give a damn
If you wanna get petty
Amber Heard
Leave a turd
You could shit on my bedding
While I'm on a bus heading
To our shotgun wedding
Walk down the aisle I'ma die soon

Yeah cause we say our vows
At least try to
As she looks in my eyes
And says "I do"
While I look in her eyes
I say I do-
Not!
Oh
Leme sing my ballad
Love won't last
I'ma heartbreak addict
Baby cry them tears
You could fill my chalice
How many hearts have I now damaged
Damn it
I don't wanna excuse my antics
But I don't got time
For the ones who don't matter
Fuck a work life balance
When you tryna live lavish
In a house so big
I'ma earn my palace

Hate me while I'm here
But you miss me when I'm gone
Sometimes it just feels like we won't ever get along
How can this be real if it doesn't leave a scar?
Yeah you left me in the dark
I can't love you from afar!
I can't love you from afar
So I cry out in the dark
So I cry out in the dark
How can this be real if it doesn't leave a scar?
If it doesn't leave a scar
I can't love you from afar
