GAWVI

If you know me like I know me
You would hate me and disown me
I'm just trying to be different
For my wife, for my children
If you know me like I know me
You would hate me and disown me
I'm just trying to be different
For my wife, for my children

It's difficult
It's difficult
I know what that mean, yeah
It's difficult
It's difficult, it's difficult

If you know me like I know me
You would hate me and disown me
I'm just trying to be different
For my wife, for my children
