

You Are

GAWVI

Who you are, who you are
Who you are, who you are

Laying here all alone seeing through my reflections
What I long just to see, I can find it here in me
Laying here all alone seeing through my reflections
All you see is the love that you chose to cover me

Who you are fills all of me
Stubborn love, see you chasing after me

Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet

Standing here by your side looking at your reflections
I thought I knew but now I know your relentless love for me
I've run away for far too long from who you are
I should've seen but couldn't see that your steps were right with me

Who you are fills all of me
Stubborn love, see you chasing after me

Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
It's who you are, who you are
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
It's who you are, who you are
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet

Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
Now I know who you are, who you are
All along your reflection was in me

Now I know who you are, who you are
Now I'm living how this love was meant to be

Good love knocks me
It's who you are, who you are
Good love knocks me
Knocks me off my feet
Good love knocks me
It's who you are, who you are
Good love knocks me

Who you are, who you are
Who you are, who you are
Good love knocks me
Who you are, who you are
Good love knocks me
