

Feel Loop (Lizard Dream)

Gaz Coombes

I can change in so many ways
I'm not afraid of all these stages
I walk out as the full moon peaks, yeah
To the beats and the drums of chaos
You can look me in the eyes or Change sides when I walk down the street
And you can take a part of me
But it'll find a way to heal
'Cause I'm a lizard, I won't chew the seeds
Of the fake and out of reach

I know how it feels, I woke up
Well, I was so very uptight
Down the edge of fever
You know it seems so calm outside

I know there's nothing like it
The moment I reawaken
So rip it up and start again to
Rewind, 'cause that's what I feel like

I'm attuned in so many ways
But I'm a cage to all these feelings
And all week in between the sheets
I feel a change, let the mind surrender
'Cause you can take a part of me
But it'll find its way to heal

I know how it feels, I woke up
Well, I was so very uptight
Down the edge of fever
You know it seems so calm outside

I know there's nothing like it
The moment I reawaken
So rip it up and start again to
Rewind, 'cause that's what I feel like
(That's what I feel like)

I know there's nothing like it
The moment I reawaken
So rip it up and start again to
Rewind, 'cause that's what I feel like
