

Long Live The Strange

Gaz Coombes

Long live the strange
Where I'm with you, oh
So don't ever change
'Cause I love you, oh

Will my heart stop
Everything just floating in the dark
But it's alright
You can start dreaming
And be yourself tonight

Long live the strange
Where I'm with you, oh
So don't ever change
'Cause I love you, oh

And when you feel lost
Just hang on and hold tight
Kindest dream
So be yourself tonight

Yes, we walked in the sunlight
And now live our old life
Yes, enough from the background
All these walls we can tear down
Is the fate of loved ones
That seek out the nightmares
Are we all what it feels like
And I wanna make it all, yes
And when I'm in the mood from this stage
Ah, well it feels like
Is this the part of the new start?
A new start under the moonlights
Alright

Long live the strange
When I'm with you
So I'll feel insane
'Cause I love you
