I remember passion stories
Coming from the past
A flash!
From Alphabet
French and English fashion glories
Music in my mind
A flash!

Now that you walk on all these words
You can understand

That the people around
They're not all bound to get your thoughts
From another land
Or from another town
All the things you say
Don't mean much today
You wanted to love her but she was a stranger, now
Now she can't be found!
