

Love in your eyes

Gazebo

I love you Jean
but I can't go out tonight in the machine all my thoughts are bound so tight living in recording studios makes me feel awake life is just a brand new echo digital delay

Love in your eyes
oh, baby don't you realize it's only love in your eyes oh, baby got to compromise
it's only love

I love you too but you make me feel so sad a Mini Moog is just all you need so bad you were just a damn sequencer moving to the beat living with a synthesizer cold as a repeat

Love in your eyes

but I can't stand you no more why do you scream?
I can't hear the monitor your voice needs an equalizer try to sing the song filtered in the harmonizer we can get along

Love in your eyes
it's only love
