And the groovin' is all up to your attention
Take her up, take her down, take her to a dead end
Let the steamin' come up
Better bet, better get, better let her the game
And the mood is all up into your actions
All alone like a bone you can stick to the phone and tell ya la

Gonna do, gotta do, gonna impress all your friends
And the groovin' is all up to your attention

And the mood is all up into your actions
Can't you see the sun arise?
All alone like a bone you can stick to the phone and tell ya la
