Gazpacho

Going in the night's secrecies
You see shadows where I see me
I'll come home to no one now
The house will not be my house
Tempted to stay now for me

Trust me over for this torch
Me and you on the coldest day
??

There's a rose that's grows in man's land
And it's wonderful
Though it's sprained with tears it's still in my garden

It's the one red rose I know
It's the master's hand
From the blackest dirt it grows
Rose of no man's land
Rose of no man's land
