

Hell Freezes over IV

Gazpacho

You walked here and you wandered
Seek the shadows and the fields
You've been stuck here in this moment
Ever since you touched it

And hear now
No relic
Is a piece of a saint
So go on
On your way now
But know you're not alone

Look closer
Look deeper
You've fallen so fast
In the starlit cold morning
Where dreams never last
Never last
Never last
