

The Secret

Gazpacho

Trembling her fingers through his soft graying hair he barely noticed that she was there the party has secrets toasting in vintage a man of the world her face is pale now mother of pearl the party has secrets stark raving mad what she's been hiding from them all these years so far away now the moment is here no one heard the thunder as he tumbled down the stairs

and they say that he's a lunatic the marks are on her back short changed at the party we all have secrets stark raving mad
