

Crossfire

GBH

Ya know we need a little crisis,
to prove our sacrifices.
Get the taboos lifted,
get the gears shifted.

Don't get caught in the crossfire,
don't sabotage yourself trying to get higher.
This whole situation is getting out of hand.
Don't get caught in the crossfire,
don't sabotage yourself trying to get higher.
Every outpost has roots into the land.

We think that we're barbarians,
but we feel more like titarians,
Scared of our emotion,
causing a commotion.

This could be explosive,
hunting without a motive.
I ain't no super-structure,
I'm flesh and bone, I fracture.
