

Pure Greed

GBH

You've got a fast brain,
it's like a bullet train.
You've been branded,
LINE TO BE ADDED !

Your scream's like gasoline,
it burned me to the core.
You used to stand for something,
but not any more.

And when I turned to you,
in my hour of need.
I looked into your eyes,
and saw the pure greed.
Yeah when I turned to you,
on my bended knees.
I looked into your eyes,
and they shone a pure green.

Domino skyscrapers and thunder,
not just another face, just another number.
Domino skyscrapers and thunder,
not just another face, just another number.

You've got a big life,
but I heard that it's broken.
Now I'm gonna' sit and laugh,
until my eyes are soakin'.
