Geko

Yeah, yeah

Girl, you're luxury, for true
You know I do give out lots of me for you
I never will doubt, do what the reaper do
Stayed awake when the rest went to sleep on you
(Who went to sleep on ya?)
I don't think they wanna hear you loud and clear
How about you whisper to me, "I don't care"
If I could I would stay with you a thousand years
Yes or no, it be a thousand clear

True say I'm known, my love acting like some Oscars
Why you think I'm in the club with something in my boxers?
Why you think when you feel sick I treat you like ya doctors?
I love you, baby, I love you like a fat kid with some chocolates

Bum, bum, bum, she wrote
Don't think she can see though
When you wonder why I'm on the line
On time for you though
I keep it hundred with my number uno

I wanna hang out with you all night
Hold you skin tight
You're the one that I can think of
The only one that I can think of
I'll never change, just say my name
I'll be on time
You're the one that I can think of
The only one that I can think of
Now we need to link up

Ola, ola, twenty something
Acting grown up and sour
Big whip when she rolls up, no blunts
Every text is like, "You're so dumb, I'm so done", eh
Ay gyal, calm down that body looking right
What you saying? Finna give you some wood tonight
Thinking to myself, I swear she moving hella fruity
She said she want a man, a man badder than Boosie
Look, I see you causing carnny in Carni
Posse dripping designer, Louis, Gucci, Fendi, Armani
Body like Beyonce, kinda look like Kehlani
Here, take the car keys I'm wavy, I'm finna 'cause a tsunami
If I see something I like, I ain't thinking twice
Say we live for the moment as we only get one life
Tell me what's on your mind, there's no need to be polite
It's looking like we're gonna be here all night

I wanna hang out with you all night
Hold you skin tight
You're the one that I can think of
The only one that I can think of
I'll never change, just say my name
I'll be on time
You're the one that I can think of

The only one that I can think of
Now we need to link up

You're the one that I can think of, yeah
For true, drink for two
All boss gone for ya, do it, ooh, ooh
You know how I love it when you do what you do
When you whine up ya bumpah
Winter to the summer yeah, yeah
Stop changing your number
You go out sometimes and you stare me down

What I think in my mind when ya skin tight
Looking all fine
We can even have a drink, ah
Baby girl, we need to link up, yeah
Yeah, we can just ride through the night time
Hold ya skin tight
You're the only one I think of
Baby girl, we need to link up, yeah

Nuffa dem ah really buckin', dem ah dead over you
Dem never want me fi come right true
It's something real what we have and they mad 'bout it
Make dem gwan check

Dem never want me fi come right true
It's something real what we have and they mad 'bout it
Make dem gwan check

I wanna hang out with you all night
Hold you skin tight
You're the one that I can think of
