Hold me steady, guide my path
Pace towards the future then do the math
No absolutes, no guarantees
It's not a game, you can never flee

Minute by minute, day to day
The clock rescinds and the hands forever sway

Availed from nothing by playing your game
Availed from nothing, ready to blame

Minute by minute, day to day
The clock rescinds and the hands forever sway

Never lose sight of the unchangeable fact
The circumstance fixed but you can help how you react

Availed from nothing by playing your game
Availed from nothing, ready to blame
Ready to blame
