

Humble Abode

Gelo

Family full of soldiers, my humble abode
Lord, protect my soul

Lord, protect my soul 'cause hell is gettin' cold (Hey)
Family full of soldiers, my humble abode (Hey)
Swerve through life, I roam like followin' the gold (Hey)
I can't stand alone 'cause everything I own (Hey)

Stars all in the Rolls, remindin' me of home
Always keep a pole for any nigga tryna troll
They say I'm a cornball, my last name after all
Nigga, I don't fuck with corn, but I got bread to feed us all (Feed us all)
I heard through the grapevine, they wanna drain me, razor
Nigga, life can get so cruel at times, I take my hicks upon my chin
But I'ma keep it coolin', run my checks bigger than Scratch & Wins
Bitch, you can't complain 'bout life, there's fallen nigga in the pen
I'ma keep my flame to light the way when it get dark again
Walk on mask off through hell and ask the Lord to watch my sins

Lord, protect my soul 'cause hell is gettin' cold (Hey)
Family full of soldiers, my humble abode (Hey)
Swerve through life, I roam like followin' the gold (Hey)
Can't stand alone 'cause everything I own (Everything I own, hey)

One shot (Yeah), no problem (Okay)
Target on my back (Yeah), I'ma still solve 'em (Okay)
Salvation (Yeah), bitch, I made it (Okay)
You want beef with me? We stake it out then, make it vacant
Bitch, I ain't got no replacements
Problem and blessings, face 'em
Bitch, let's face the facts, I've been this way since I was just a baby
Why these bitches comin' crazy? Like cars, I have my ways
You say what you want 'bout me, I do this shit just for my babies
I was rappin' in the basement, now I rock a stadium
Double-XL Freshman shit, niggas rock a medium
Everywhere you go, make sure you pack that theat, my son
Cause when this shit get hot outside, know you won't feel the need to run

Lord, protect my soul 'cause hell is gettin' cold (Hey)
Family full of soldiers, my humble abode (Hey)

Swerve through life, I roam like followin' the gold (Hey)
I can't stand alone 'cause everything I own (Everything I own,
