

Never

Gemini Syndrome

You are beautiful like Mona Lisa
You wanna save the world
You want to be like Saint Theresa
But you don't have a reason

I may never understand
Why you are
(You are perfect)
Perfect in every way
And so far
You walk apart without a teacher
You wanna rule the world
You concrecate around the preacher
And noone cause a treason
Spense you pay attention
But lesson never throught
Noone shares the answers
I guess they have a reasons

I may never understand
Why you are
(You are perfect)
Perfect in every way
And so far
I may never understand
Why you are
(You are)
(You are perfect)
Perfect in every way
And so far
You can call me brother
You can look into my eyes
You can call me lover
You can shake my hand
You can never speak to me
And never be my friend
And you can beeter feel the end
And you can beeter feel the end
And you can beeter feel the end
I may never understand
Why you are
(You are)
(You are perfect)
Perfect in every way
And so far
