

Another You, Another Me

Gemini

Shadow in the wake of night
Taking shape and body in the morning light
We were sure
This could never have happened before
Once and no more

We had no choice
Following an ancient voice
Souls and bodies keen to know a thousand joys
And we learned making up
For the nights we had yearned

We made plans
We made a vow
All so far from what is now
Strangers somehow

Another you, another me
It was the dawn of the first day
And life had only just begun
Another you, another me

The past had nothing more to say
We had our moment in the sun
And I can't see
No I can't tell you how it came to be
Another you, another me
Never before
Like on that deserted shore
Had I felt the urge to know and to explore
And it's strange

When you asked
'Do you think this will change?'
I said: 'No, this is the way
This is how our love will stay
Just like today'

Another you, another me
It was the dawn of the first day
And life had only just begun
Another you, another me

The past had nothing more to say
We had our moment in the sun
And I can't see
No I can't tell you how it came to be
Another you, another me

And I can't see
No I can't tell you how it came to be
Another you, another me
Another you, another me
