Have you ever met somebody that will love you like I do I'm going crazy, crazy for you and have you ever loved somebody that would give it all for you I'm going crazy, crazy for you

I've always been by myself lived life by myself never cared for solitude just cared for the wealth steady stackin
never slackin
with no time to be wastin while these other dudes chasin broads I was chasin their paper but then (but then) came you (came you) and it was over baby I was going crazy for you and I ain't felt this way in a minute and I ain't gonna lie to you ma this shit I'm starting to dig it for real everything about you is what I like about you I go crazy and I lose my mind trade my world and I'd give my life cuz it feels so right and every day you make it clear that you don't want to be replaced just by them little things you do, just by them little things you say five years done past and we done went through some drama from court dates to miscarriages to you losing your mama but now (but now) I see (I see) that you're my one and only baby oh I'm going crazy I can't eat (I can't eat) I can't sleep (I can't sleep) no more, no more it's like I toss and turn at night memories ease my pain I keep hearing you laughin, screamin, callin my name then my eyes open wide and I see you ain't there then the joy from the music turn to a permanent tear of ink my only sanity in these walls is just the thought of you paradise up in my mind just for a second or two but then it's gone and I gotta go too because I changed my ways ma I'm coming home to you, for real
