

Tears On My Pillow

Gene Autry

We were so happy when love lingered on
Back in our sweet used to be
But now it's all over and you were gone
Leaving a sad memory

And there's tears on my pillow each morning
I cry when I dream about you
When I should be sleeping I just lay there weeping
Wondering if you're weeping too

I'm trying so hard to forget you
But that's not so easy to do
With these tears on my pillow each morning
Tears that I've shed over you

Tears on my pillow each morning
I cry when I dream about you
When I should be sleeping I just lay there weeping
Wondering if you're weeping too

I'm trying so hard to forget you
But that's not so easy to do
With these tears on my pillow each morning
Tears that I've shed over you
