In this town where I'm from There's not a lot of things going on You've got to use a little imagination To get along So you go to a bar And you talk to your friends About girls and cars And even though you're bored They'll only go this far You're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby Yes you are You hear a song, you spin around And you laugh as your feet hit the ground You feel like a celebration This time around So you go to a bar And you talk to your friends About girls and cars And even though you're bored They'll only go this far You're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby Yes you are You're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby Yes you are You need a lover, oh yes you do You need a lover, nothing else is true You need a lover, I need you You need a lover You'd make the dead dance too You're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby Yes you are You're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby Yes you are I need you, you need me I need you, yes it's true, it's true

You're so gorgeous, baby

You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby Yes you are
