

It'll End in Tears

Gene Loves Jezebel

I don't know why you came
I was happier before you came
Well, it'll end in tears, counting out those fears
Thinking it's all just a game
Well, I really don't care if I never, ever see your face again
You never, ever, ever try to be close to me
Then you come around just to knock around
Pushing me around, you think it's a game
It'll end in tears, drowning out those fears
You know it's not - its' not a game (no game)
I was only thinking of you
You know that I was only thinking of you
(you think pretty - well you're not, aha)
I don't know why you come to this town

You really can't have something you don't want to pay for
It'll end in tears, drowning out those fears
Thinking it's all just a game - its' no game
It'll end in tears, drowning out those fears
Sinking, your all shook up baby, shook up
I was only thinking of you
I swear that I was only thinking of you
You know that I was only dreaming about you - oh sure
You know that I was only thinking of you
Dreaming about you, yeah yeah yeah
About you, about you, about you
Dreaming about you, about you ...
