

I Should Try to Forget

Gene Pitney

Guess I should try to forget
That we ever met
But I keep on forgetting to try
Your picture's gone from the wall
I don't write, I don't call
But I keep on forgetting not to cry
Oh I should try to remember
That you're no longer mine
But it's a losing battle every time
Yes I should try to forget
How I love you and yet
I just keep on forgetting to try
(Oh I should try to remember
That you're no longer mine)
But it's a losing battle every time
Yes I should try to forget
How I love you and yet
I just keep on forgetting to try
