

Teardrop by Teardrop

Gene Pitney

Teardrop by teardrop
I will put out the flame
Teardrop by teardrop
Not one spark will remain

You left me a broken heart
When you said goodbye
And I know there's gonna be
A lot of tears I'll cry
Though I'm still burning with desire
I found the way to fight the fire

Teardrop by teardrop
I will put out the flame
Teardrop by teardrop
Not one spark will remain

And if my plans follow through then
Teardrop by teardrop by
Teardrop by teardrop
I'll have cried away my love for you
By teardrop by teardrop
By teardrop by teardrop
By teardrop
