Looking Back

Gene Vincent

Looking back over my life
I can see I caused you some strife
But I know, oh yes, I know
I'd never make that same mistake again

Looking back over my life
I can see I caused you some strife
But I know, oh yes, I know
I'd never make that same mistake again

Whoa, once my cup's running over
And I gave nothing in return
Once my cup's running over
Can't you see the lesson I have learned

Looking back over my life
I can see I caused you some strife
But don't you know, oh yes, don't you know
I'd never make that same mistake again
But don't you know, oh yes, don't you know
I'd never make that same mistake again
```
