

I Catch Myself

Gene Watson

Sometimes, late at night, I think about you
Now and then, I still forget that you and I are through
And I'll reach for the phone and start to call you at home
But I catch myself, yeah, I catch myself
And some days, unconsciously, I whisper your name
Sitting at some red light waiting for my life to change
And I'll drive by your house and almost stop and get out
But I catch myself, girl, I catch myself

So many times, I tried to love somebody else
And had my heart believing that's how I really felt
But every time I've almost fallen, I hear your memory calling
And I catch myself, oh, I catch myself

So many times, I tried to love somebody else
And had my heart believing that's how I really felt
But every time I've almost fallen, I hear your sweet voice calling ing
And I catch myself, oh, I catch myself
I always catch myself still loving you
