

Her Fifteen Years

Gene

Goodbye kind world
I'm sad to leave
For I've been haunting you
For fifteen years
And all I've done
To improve your lives
And yet, you still dared
To let me go
So take your childrens hearts
And lay them on the line
For without my care
They are lost
I've been exposed
I have been let down
For all the love I gave
I'm left alone
Still you laugh
