

The Accidental

Gene

My honour's in doubt
It was accidental
And I swear to God
It was the wrong angle

And the blade flashed by
And I had to grab it
A lunging mass
It was accidental

The nights seem longer
Tell me what I've done

I know I think
That he deserved it
We all like a drink
But he deserved it

And the blade flashed by
And I barely saw it
My dreams are scarred
Your face my forfeit

The nights seem longer
Tell me what I've done

Now I know
That's the earth from the sky to the ground
Is alive with an aching for love
Look at me, I have tried but good luck is a sound
I've not heard in my life for a while

Don't desert me now
It was accidental
The blade flashed by
There was nothing better

My mind was numb
And my guts they left me
This normal night
This one dead body
