

Get Inspired

Genesis Owusu

Yeah

Cliché if it's not making dollars baby it's not making sense
How you picky with your art when you can't even pay your rent?
Chipped for years and years and years but seems you haven't made a dent
All that dreaming shit you chasing showed its face then came and went Feels like I'm out here scuba diving with an anchor
While my people fighting demons and the cancers
Tryna fix it singing ballads, singing anthems
How I'm so clueless with the last name Ansah

How he do that
Can't be sitting gentle in the storm
You gotta move that
I been busy breaking down the walls
I'm getting through that
Girl this ain't my final curtain call
I bet you knew that
Knew that, knew that, knew that

Trapped (trapped)
How the fuck you figure that
I can't be laying on my back
(I can't be laying on my what?)
I hear them knocking on my door
But love ain't living here no more (no more)
Holding life, I gotta squeeze
(I gotta mothafucking squeeze)
These lemons got me on my knees
They biting, they some fuckin' fleas
I'm snappin, I ain't saying cheese
